Nomination Paper Pack

This pack contains information and relevant forms to be able to stand as a candidate at the Parish and Town Council Elections.

Guidance for candidates

Detailed guidance from the Electoral Commission can be found on their website	https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/guidance-candidates-parish-council-elections-england
All candidates should be aware of the Code of Conduct for Campaigners	https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/guidance-returning-officers-administering-local-government-elections-england/planning-election/maintaining-integrity-election/code-conduct-campaigners

The Elections Team are able to help with the completion of nomination papers, including the provision of elector numbers for the proposers and seconders but are not able to give advice on whether a person is able to stand as a candidate. Please follow the Electoral Commission guidance or, if in doubt, seek your own legal advice.

To be a candidate at the above election, the nomination paper, home address form and consent to nomination must be delivered to the Returning Officer at the Council Offices, Trinity Road, Cirencester, GL7 1PX by 4pm on Monday 23 December 2024.

The Elections Team will check each nomination paper informally to give candidates the opportunity to correct any errors or omissions which may otherwise mean the nomination is invalid. Once this is complete, the paper will be formally accepted and you will become a candidate.

Nomination papers must be hand delivered to the Returning Officer at Trinity Road, Cirencester, GL7 1PX. You may leave your nomination paper with the Elections Team before it has been checked, but this may mean you need to complete a new paper if there are any errors or omissions.

Although not necessary, if you would like to make an appointment to bring your nomination in, please contact the Elections Team on 01285 623002 or email elections@cotswold.gov.uk and we will do our best to accommodate your request.

- (a) for being nominated for election to a relevant elective office, and
- (b) for being elected to or holding a relevant elective office.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply where the court considers that there are particular circumstances relating to the offence or to the offender which would make it unjust in all the circumstances to make the order; and in such a case the court must state in open court the reasons for not making the order.

(4) For the purposes of this section an offence is aggravated by hostility related to persons falling within any of sections 32 to 34 if—

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) it is immaterial whether or not the offender's hostility is also based, to any extent, on any other factor not mentioned in that subsection.

(6) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a disqualification order the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and the defence.

(7) It is immaterial whether evidence led in pursuance of subsection (6) would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.

(8) Where a Schedule 9 offence is found to have been committed—

- (a) over a period of 2 or more days, or
- (b) at some time during a period of 2 or more days,

“presumed” means presumed by the offender;

“Schedule 9 offence” means an offence listed in Schedule 9 (and any reference in that Schedule to an offence includes a reference to that offence committed by aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence).
